

WACS Jury Code of Conduct

Dear WACS Jury member, congratulation on been selected to represent WACS and our professional culinary fraternity at this prestigious event. As a member of the Jury you have a number of obligations that need to be followed to ensure the show is run professional and is successful.

As a member of the jury,

1. I shall conduct my professional activities in a manner, which reflects honor and integrity to our profession.
2. I shall not engage in slander or disrespect to a fellow member of the jury team.
3. I will judge fairly and without bias the tasks assigned to me as a member of the jury and this includes, religion, race and products presented to us.
4. I shall refrain from using my position on the jury to influence others in decisions relating to the competition in favor of one or another.
5. I shall participate in the various activities that is required to be a member of the jury, including feed backs, team meetings and kitchen inspections as requested by the President or Chairman of the Jury.
6. I will only comment as a member of the jury to competitors during the period allocated and only discuss items that I have been in the jury team to judge.
7. I will report for my duties at the time indicated or requested by the President or Chairman of my jury team or for some unforeseen circumstance where I cannot, notify the Chairman immediately.
8. I will dress according to the dress code as set out by the President of the Show, and maintain a professional appearance during the duration of the show.
9. I shall refrain from using my position as a member of the jury in such a manner as to state or imply items that may contravene or go beyond the scope of my position.
10. I ensure that I follow all the judging guidelines that have been set down by the WACS Culinary Competition Committee and not deviate from these rules and regulations.
11. All press related issues will be forwarded to the President of the Jury and if approached, I will direct the media to the President or the official Press office.
12. Should I transgress from any of these rules of the WACS Jury Code of Conduct, I am aware that I may be removed from the jury and also removed from the WACS Jury List in the future. I am also aware that my country President and Association will be informed of the breach.